

Rising Healers:

A Native American Youth Healthcare Expo

Want to support your students in their aspirations and curiosity about careers in healthcare?

When: April 28th, 2026

Check-in: 9:00 AM

Program: 9:30 AM – 2:30 PM

Where:

Health Sciences Innovation Bldng
1670 E Drachman St, Tucson, AZ
85721

Native American middle and high school students interested in healthcare, science, or community impact are invited to an interactive campus day exploring health careers, connecting with Native health professionals and graduate students, and building community with peers who share similar goals.

- Interactive sessions with healthcare professionals
- Intentional relationship building with peers and mentors.
- Resource tables from programs that support Native youth
- Lunch, snacks, and water are provided.

SAVE THE DATE

Transportation is coordinated through participating schools; however, transportation reimbursement is provided.

Questions?

Please email: COM-Engagement@arizona.edu

ATSU | National Center for American Indian Health Professions

THE UNIVERSITY OF ARIZONA
COLLEGE OF MEDICINE TUCSON

Community Engagement
& Partnerships

